

Spiritual Being

Connie Cook Smith © 1987

Looking into his infinite eyes
Is like gazing into the far-away skies
Traveling with him through ancient sacred land
Feeling Creation in the touch of his hand

He's a radiant Spiritual Being
With a knowing, flowing spiritual touch
Being with him is a healing
Ever learning, learning, learning so much
About the Universe
And God's Reality
That's what he's teaching me

Feeling the love-flow
Everywhere he goes
He's living on another plane
You can go along into his sacred song
But it's your choice to go or remain

He's a radiant Spiritual Being
With a knowing, flowing spiritual touch
Being with him is a healing
Ever learning, learning, learning so much
About the Universe
And God's Reality
That's what he's giving me

And he knows the name of every flower and tree
There's love for all he sees
And he knows how to be in Eternity
He shows you and me

In a relationship
Or in a spaceship
He knows the rules that apply
Love is the law
And I am in awe
He's unified the earth and the sky

He's a radiant Spiritual Being
With a knowing, flowing spiritual touch
Being with him is a healing
Ever learning, learning, learning so much
About the Universe
And God's Reality
That's what he's giving me
